Because He Lives...

“If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.” I Corinthians 15:19

“Because He Lives” is the very well-known hymn written by Bill & Gloria Gaither. The chorus goes like this, “Because He lives I can face tomorrow; Because He lives all fear is gone; Because I know He holds the future, and life is worth the living just because He lives.” Yesterday that was one of the hymns we sang at the Thursday worship service at California Care Center. I looked around at faithful saints in wheel chairs, most with declining health, and not where they wanted to be. Some had a spouse with them. We weren’t the best choir for sure but I know God was pleased with the faithful worship coming from our little group. Because Jesus lives, we have hope in every circumstance that Jesus is with us and that eternity with him is waiting for us if we have proclaimed our faith and obedience in him.

This April we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The most defining moment in all of history. There will be several services to help us prepare for the joy of Easter Sunday. On April 2nd, Palm Sunday, we will celebrate the confirmation of our seven confirmands. They all have completed their studies and statements of faith. This is the final step for this journey, but it is the first step of their own faith journey that will take them into adulthood and beyond. Prayers for their continued spiritual growth.

On April 6th we will have our traditional Maundy Thursday service to remember the initiation of the Lord’s Supper. It is a special time of remembrance, singing, scripture, and the Lord’s Supper. On April 7th, the Salem UCC will hold a Good Friday service to help us focus on the death of Jesus on the cross and the darkness that came with it. Salem invites everyone to participate in this somber service. On April 9th, will be our 7:00 Sunrise Service with a delicious breakfast and Sunday School followed by our regular 10:30 service.

This year, everyone in attendance will receive the book “More than a Carpenter” by Josh and Sean McDowell, as well as a tube of lip balm with our church’s information on it. We have invitation cards in the back of the sanctuary for you to use to invite someone to our Easter services. Last year we had over 400 in attendance for both services. Be praying about who you might invite for this special day.

In April, we will finish our look at the Gospel of Mark, The Case for Christ. I plan to start a short series on the prophet Isaiah in late April and May. Isaiah is called the fifth gospel because of all the prophecies about Jesus. Many famous scripture passages about Jesus are found in Isaiah like Isaiah chapters 7, 9 and 53. I look forward to going through this sermon series with you.

April is a special month for our family. We celebrate five different birthdays in April, my dad’s, our two grandkids, my new son-in-law and finally mine. But it is also a month we remember the deaths of three of Betty and I’s grandparents. Life is like that. Joy and sorrow, but because of the resurrection of Jesus we always have hope. See you in church.

Because He Lives,
Russ

Easter Envelope—Emmaus Homes

Emmaus Homes - Easter Sunday Benevolence

Emmaus Homes was founded in 1893 in Marthasville, Missouri, by our antecedent denomination (The Evangelical Synod) when they decided to use their vacated seminary buildings to serve individuals with developmental disabilities. As a reflection of their Christian faith, the founders of Emmaus attempted to care for those in need, while recognizing each person's worth and unique qualities and by creating a spirit of community. In 1901, Emmaus opened its St Charles campus to meet the vast need for services to people with developmental disabilities closer to St. Louis. Today, while some individuals still reside on the Emmaus campuses, many now live in homes in the community. Emmaus serves clients in nearly 50 homes throughout the St. Charles, St. Louis, Warren and Franklin counties and St. Louis City. Emmaus works with each client to help them live as independently as possible.

Arising from faith in Jesus Christ, the mission of Emmaus Homes is to enhance the quality of life for adults of all beliefs who have cognitive, intellectual, and other developmental disabilities. The individual's mental, physical, and social abilities are assessed to determine the living situation best suited to their needs, including on campus housing, group homes and individual supported living residences. Some homes have 24-hour supervision, while others provide part-time supervision and assistance.

At Emmaus, an individual's spiritual life is an important part of one's journey to fulfillment and independence. Emmaus takes pride in their faith-based heritage, and strives to help each of their clients participate in the faith community of their choice. Ordained ministers and seminary students help guide and encourage their clients of all beliefs in their spiritual pursuits. A variety of spiritual care services are provided to clients, family members, and staff.

UCC Women's Guild Meeting ~ March 15, 2023

Opening Procedures

President Pamela Hill opened the meeting with prayer. The Bible study lesson followed, presented by Carole B. "God with Us in Our Uncertainty" was based on passages from Exodus and Judges.

Judy B. gave us the Thought for the Day, "The Parable of the Pencil." It reminded us that, among several similarities to a pencil, we also do best when we endure painful sharpening's occasionally, correct mistakes as we go, and leave a positive mark wherever we walk.

Members had opportunity to contribute this month to World Day of Prayer, UCC Scholarship Fund, Ministerial Alliance, and California Nutrition Center. The offering was collected.

Business Meeting

Motion by Linda S., second by Judy B. to approve the minutes as presented. Motion Carried.

Motion by Linda S., second by Lexi H. to approve the financial report as corrected. Motion Carried. (A copy is attached to the secretary's copy of the minutes.)

Committee #2 is available for the next Celebration of Life dinner.

Mary B. reported the Best Choice label count is now at 2145.

Judy B. had cards available for signing and reported she had sent 22 cards this month. She related how important this ministry is to the recipients and how often they express their appreciation for the cards.

Pamela H. reported Thank You notes from Moniteau Christian Ministries Center and Every Child's Hope for recent contributions.

Old Business

World Day of Prayer review. 44 people were in attendance from 11 churches. An offering in the amount of $875 was received and a check will be forwarded to WDP. Attendees had many favorable comments regarding the program, fellowship, and refreshments. They hope the event will continue next year. Committee members reported dissatisfaction with the advertising banner (it did not stand up to the wind and weather) but Lexi H. reported the maker is willing to replace it with a better product for next year. Pamela H. congratulated the group on their great participation, imagination, and help with the event.

Confirmation Reception plans for March 29, 2023 were finalized. The event needs to be personally announced each Sunday in church from now on. Linda S. and Pamela H. will take care of drinks. Napkins only will be used to serve the cookies. Members will each provide two dozen plated cookies. They will need to be in the kitchen by 6:00 p.m. Linda S. will create a sign similar to that from last year.

Kitchen Cabinet: The cabinet/industrial can opener situation will be addressed at the April meeting.

New Business

Church Cabinet Meeting, March 26, 2023. Pamela H. reviewed the "Activities and Services Worksheet" she had completed for presentation at the cabinet meeting. Members suggested a couple of additional activities be added to the lists. Linda S. will present the information at the Cabinet Meeting.

Birthday Congratulations: Barbara Weis, Peggy Liebi, and Juanita Meisenheimer were congratulated for birthday anniversaries.

Joys and Concerns: Members shared their recent travels, adventures, and visits/visitors. We do enjoy this time so much.

Fellowship: Judy B. closed with prayer and we enjoyed bountiful, delicious refreshments by Mary Ann Kueffer and Carmen Ferris. Thank you, ladies.

Our March benevolence is the California Nutrition Center, which is a hometown non-profit organization, providing a variety of social, educational, health education and recreational activities for seniors, aged 60 and older. They also serve a noon-time meal Monday – Friday from 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM.

Old Business:

Discussion of the success of the Chili cook off Family Night. All the reviews have been positive.

Courtney will be getting the palms and Carla will check on the progress.

New Business:

Steven's classroom needs new chairs, they are wondering what needs to happen to the current chairs. A discussion was held to add to "Spring Clean-up week" sponsored by the City of California. Need to get dates for our location. It was decided we have suitable chairs to be utilized from the church. Lauren also noted she has issues with a cabinet in her classroom. Lauren will add to the "Spring Clean-Up" project. Carla noted, if any of the other teacher's need to get rid of broken or unused items, please add.

Discussion of a quarterly schedule for pianists to sign up for Sunday School Opening. All agreed it is a good idea and will be posted next month. Carla will be contacting the current list of piano players to get this availability.

Thanks to Carla for mostly filling out the Sunday Schools response for Activities and Service worksheet for the upcoming Cabinet meeting that will be held on March 26. Russ added, that the Consistory is looking at how much money is spent on Mission work through the various church groups. He would like to expend 10% of the church's income to missions. During the exercise it was noted that another Mission we could give to is Camp Aurora as we have several members of our church that attend various camps each year.

Carla Clennin made motion to adjourn at 7:47 PM

Next meeting will be Monday April 3, 2023 at 7 PM

Respectfully submitted,
Cressida Gattermeir 3rd Superintendent

UCC Brotherhood Minutes – February 27, 2023

Refreshments – A delicious meal and desserts was provided by Steven and Laura Burger to begin the meeting.

Business Meeting – Vice-President Jerry Wolfrum called the meeting to order with 20 members and guests present. The minutes of the January meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was approved with a current balance of $2219.35. In new business, Reverend Cobb mentioned that the activity director at Valley Park West had asked if the Brotherhood could come and sing some hymns for their residents sometime. The group agreed to participate as it could be scheduled. The group discussed sponsoring a family night with a pot-luck supper and bingo like we did last year. If it can be worked out with other church groups, we will coordinate a family night the Sunday after Easter (April 16, 2023)

The nominating committee submitted the names of David Meyer for Brotherhood president and David Gattermeir for secretary, both for 2-year terms. It was moved, seconded that nominations be closed and both men be elected by acclamation. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned until after the program.

Program – Virginia Johnson Shetler, a representative of the VITAE Foundation, presented the program about her work and the work of the Foundation. She noted that VITAE is the Latin word for life. It is a nation-wide non-profit organization that promotes life. The VITAE Society was founded in 1992 and started conducting research in 1994 to study the process women with unexpected pregnancies go through when deciding whether to support life. The group focuses on ways to provide positive support to women struggling with decisions. Virginia noted that following the Dobbs Decision, there has been a major uptick in abortion pills, often coming from overseas, and they are seeing problems with the pills being used in later stages of pregnancy than they are designed. VITAE communicates with women through modern social media as well as in traditional ways.

Virginia grew up in California, graduated from CHS and is the daughter of the late Clayton and Ellie Johnson.

Business Meeting, continued – The group practiced the hymn “In the Hour of Trial” for special music for the Lenten service on Wednesday, March 1. Following a successful practice, Steven Burger volunteered to give the devotional for the March meeting and Rob Barbour volunteered to provide refreshments. A motion was made, seconded and approved to give a $500 donation to Virginia Shetler for the VITAE Foundation.

Meeting Adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted – Norman Rohrbach, Secretary

UCC Brotherhood Minutes – March 27, 2023

Refreshments – A delicious meal and desserts were provided by Rob and Maria Barbour to begin the meeting. Robert Barbour prayed a blessing over the meal. Following refreshments, Steven Burger gave a devotion on 2 Corinthians 2:11 entitled “How Much Will This Choice Actually Cost Me?”, which cautioned about the well-crafted schemes of the devil and how Satan strives to keep the true cost of poor decisions from us. It encouraged us to always be aware of the consequences of our actions, both intended and unintended.

Business Meeting –President Dave Meyer called the meeting to order with 25 members and guests present. The minutes of the February meeting were read and approved.

The group formally thanked outgoing president Abe Rohrbach for his years of service in the office. A brief discussion was held concerning the continuation of the prisoner’s program, which Abe championed. It was decided to continue support of this program with further discussions and planning to be conducted later in the year.

Discussions were held to further organize the planned family night and pot-luck supper, scheduled for April 16, noting that the event has been approved by the Consistory. God’s Singers will again provide entertainment for the event, and Connie Bestgen will be contacted about possibly adding other talented young people to the program. Volunteers were arranged for table and chair setup, drinks, and plates, cups, etc. Bingo games will be held, and two $25 cash prizes and one $50 prize were approved in addition to pies volunteered by the Women’s Guild.
