Maybe not Why, But How?

“Then summon me and I will answer, or let me speak, and you reply to me.” Job 13:22

Why? From a very early age, we start asking why. Our parents tell us not to do something, and we ask why. I remember lying in bed early one morning with my granddaughter Baylor a couple of years ago. She started asking questions about the birds singing outside in the trees. Why do they live in trees? What do they eat? What do they do? I probably spent 20-30 minutes trying to answer all of her questions. Answers she couldn't fully understand yet but a wonderful conversation between a loving grandpa and his precious granddaughter. I think our relationship with God is like this many times. Sometimes not so joyous but still precious.

I read through the book of Job during the month of April. It is a tough book to read. It is filled with all kinds of questions from Job, trying to understand what happened to him. The loss of everything precious to him except his wife. Job 13:20-24 I think best states Job's anxiety, “Only grant me these two things, God, and then I will not hide from you: Withdraw your hand far from me, and stop frightening me with your terrors. Then summon me and I will answer, or let me speak, and you reply to me. How many wrongs and sins have I committed? Show me my offense and my sin. Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy?”

Job is bargaining with God. He is asking the question why that all of us ask throughout life when something terrible happens to us, our loved ones, or someone in our community. Preachers usually answer with: we live in a fallen world. God gave us free will. Satan brought sin, disease, and death into the world. All good and valid answers, but I think we are asking the wrong question. We need to be asking how? How do we overcome losses? How do we endure through times of tribulation? How do we stay close to God and not lose our faith? Those questions give us practical help when we are falling into a dark void that doesn't seem to have a bottom.

Jesus was very clear that in this life we will have trouble (John 16:33). Paul told his disciples “We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God (Acts 14:22). Peter told his readers “Dear friends, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that has come on you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you” (I Peter 4:12). All through the Bible we see God’s people go through tough and terrible situations. As Paul Harvey said, the rest of the story is how God’s people make it through those tough times. First we focus on Jesus. Jesus said “Take heart! I have overcome the world” (John 16:33). Paul told his readers “to hold up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one” (Ephesians 6:16). Peter tells his readers “to commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue doing good” (I Peter 4:19).

We must prepare a spiritual first aid kit for ourselves and for those around us when trouble and great pain arrive at our doorsteps. C.S. Lewis said “But pain insists upon being attended to. God whispers to us in our pleasures, speaks in our conscience, but shouts in our pains; it is His megaphone to rouse a deaf world.” Even in the midst of terrible suffering we can still hear God’s voice. The question isn’t why, but how? The church exists to be the EMTs of the spiritual world. May God bless you with his peace in the midst of the storms of life.

UCC Brotherhood Minutes – Monday, April 22, 2024

Refreshments – Alan Chambers provided a delicious meal and desserts to begin the meeting and Norman Rohrbach prayed a blessing over the meal.

Following refreshments, Dave Meyer gave a devotion on Psalms 36:6 remarking that, in line with the evening's program, God preserves both people and animals.

Business Meeting – President Dave Myer called the business meeting to order at 7:35 PM with 22 members and guests present. The minutes of the March meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer's report was approved with a current balance of $3,494.00 following an approved donation of $500 to the Kueffer family in memory of their daughter Claire, a $150 expenditure for family night bingo prizes, a $200 gift to the Brotherhood in the name of Betty Spieler and a collection of $232.65 at the March meeting.

Thank you notes were presented from the Kueffer family for the Brotherhood's gift, indicating that the donation was forwarded to YWAM, Claire's ministry.

It was reported that the Brotherhood Family Night was a success, and consideration was given to hosting another similar event, possibly involving a pitch tournament, later in the year. This discussion will be continued at future meetings.

The May meeting will be held on May 20 to avoid holding the meeting on Memorial Day.

Discussions were held concerning relocating or rescheduling the June, 2024 meeting, which will conflict with Vacation Bible School. The decision was taken for President Dave Meyer to contact the First Christian Church about using their facilities for the meeting. If that cannot be arranged, the meeting could be rescheduled from June 24 to June 27 to coincide with the Brotherhood's VBS fish fry.

Steven Burger volunteered to provide the devotion for the May 20 meeting and Rob Barbour volunteered to provide refreshments. Carmen Ferris will present the program.

The business meeting adjourned at 7:52 PM.

Program – Nancy Krutzsch spoke about her work with Christian Veterinary Mission (CVM).

Nancy became involved with CVM at a veterinary conference in 2017 at a low point in her life. She had always had missions work in her heart, and her 2018 mission trip to Haiti with CVM allowed her to fully experience the presence of God and turn her life around, which has also included the baptism of her son and ex-husband. After several mission trips, she became a CVM regional representative who conducts outreach at various veterinary schools and conferences across the Midwest and South. She plans a mission trip to Belize in the near future.

CVM is a national ministry with 4 foci:

Veterinary student outreach: CVM maintains student chapters to support and foster Christian faith at veterinary and technical schools.

Professional veterinarian and support staff outreach: CVM conducts outreach, continuing education, and faith support for professional veterinarians and support staff through meetings, retreats, conferences and online programs, including mental health and well-being programs.

Short-term missions: CVM organizes short-term missions in developing nations to provide veterinary care for livestock animals as well as Christian outreach. Short-term mission teams generally include 2-3 veterinarians, 4 veterinary students, 4 pre-veterinary students, and 2 veterinary techs. The teams provide the opportunity for experiences that vets and students that they would not have in practice at home.

Long-term missions: CVM provides long-term missions to educate local farmers in developing nations and empower them to raise and care for their livestock in a sustainable manner.

Meeting adjourned at 8:29 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted – Dave Gattermeir, Secretary
